RECOMMENDATIONS & TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL APPLICATION:
- Meet with the FPA, Prof. Bede Bidlack, in the spring of 2014 before applying and thoroughly review all application instructions provided online at http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-checklists/academic-applicationchecklist
- Attend a Fulbright information session in the spring of 2014 and begin your application EARLY, submitting your drafts/materials to the FPA in accordance with the established timeline, see below.
• Review IIE’s list of tips for your application process:
  http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-tips/academic
• Review recommender form. Based on the questions, select recommenders who know you well and who can detail your background in connection with your proposed project. These individuals should be able to assess your academic ability and judge your adaptability and personality. Be sure to request recommendations well in advance to allow your recommenders time to thoughtfully complete the form; and
• Work closely with faculty mentors who can provide you with advice and application feedback.
